

ORANJESTAD — The flag was raised on the rafters of the Public Works expansion project Friday afternoon and the traditional beer was drank. The new building will house the building and Housing control office on the groundfloor and the Civil Designs office will be on the top floor. Contractor Dijkhoff is the building contractor. The project which is scheduled to be finished in December, represents an investment of Nafls.500,000.